Grand Reopening of Premier North Georgia Restaurant

The Oaks Lakeside Kitchen is back with a new look and a new chef at the helm.

HIAWASSEE, Georgia (June 16, 2017)—The Ridges Resort on Lake Chatuge is proud to announce the grand reopening of the Oaks Lakeside Kitchen on Saturday, July 1, at 5:00 PM (EST).

Previously closed in 2014, the Oaks Lakeside Kitchen is now under new ownership to establish the restaurant as one of the premier dining spots in northern Georgia. This includes a complete renovation of all furnishings and decor as well as the addition of a new executive chef, Jai Beasley.

“We’re really excited,” says Beasley. “We’ve got a whole new look and a fantastic new menu; we think customers old and new will really love everything we’ve done.”

Nestled in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Ridges Resort on Lake Chatuge is a leading destination for family vacations, weddings, and other special events. With the Oaks Lakeside Kitchen conveniently located on the grounds of the resort, the stunning natural beauty of its surroundings will no doubt add yet another layer to what’s sure to be an exceptional dining experience.

Under Beasley’s direction, the new menu will feature classic Southern cuisine with a fresh twist, like sweet tea–marinated fried chicken. The restaurant also offers an extensive wine list and an array of delectable desserts made in-house.

The Oaks Lakeside Kitchen will be open for breakfast Monday through Friday (7:00 AM–10:00 AM) and for breakfast and lunch on Saturdays (7:00 AM–2:00 PM). Dinner services will run 5:00 PM–10:00 PM, Wednesday through Saturday; Sunday hours will be 11:00 AM–3:00 PM.
